Dear Dawn

Further to Nex Metals Explorations Ltd (Nex or the Company) requests for the Company to be placed into voluntary suspension for non-lodgement of Half Yearly Financials on 16 March 2017 we advise that ASIC approval is still pending based on their processing terms.

As previously advised the Company as part of its corporate governance review has engaged new auditors and notwithstanding that the previous and new auditors have consented to the change we require ASIC approval.

We expect the suspension to be until the commencement of trading on Monday 27 March.

For clarity, there is no issues with respect to the financials or the audit.

On receipt of ASIC approval, the financials will be lodged and request that the suspension be lifted.

The Company is not aware of any reasons as to why it's securities should not be suspended.

Yours sincerely
